T H E P R E F A C E.

HISTORY is at present so generally esteem'd, and its best Authors so much perused, that it is unnecessary to say any thing of its Importance. For it opens, like a great Avenue, into so many of the Branches of Learning, and the different Provinces of Life, that every Man finds it useful, in that Part of Knowledge, to which he may give the Preference.

And yet, while the Books, of all Nations upon this Subject, enter into every Library, of which indeed, they generally occupy the largest Division; while they are become the private Amusement of so many, as well as a prevailing Topick of Conversation; it is surprizing, that CHRONOLOGY, should have been hitherto so partially known; when it has so much higher Pretensions, than that of a Sister Art. For the Series of Time, according to its proper Periods; the Interval of Occurrences; and the Train and Coincidence of Events; must be drawn together into one Body, to make what is properly call'd, THE THREAD OF HISTORY: without which, it is really nothing more, than a Bundle of detached Fragments.

But indeed, this Neglect of Chronological Knowledge, has arisen from one of the vulgar Errors of the present Age, which has misrepresented the Nature of this Science, as if it were merely confined, to the intricate Points of uncertain History; whereas its Province, is of a much larger Extent; and comprehends the whole History of the World, according to the Division of Kingdoms, as well as the Succession of Ages; and is so much the more full, accurate, and useful, as the particular Ages and Centuries, are the better known.

It is not therefore, without good Reason, that Chronology, by Way of Proverb, has been call'd, THE EYE OF HISTORY; because this Metaphor, expresses better than any other, how it opens a Light, upon the most dark, and complicated Revolutions of Mankind.

And we shall be the more confirm'd, in our Opinion, of the Necessity, of this Branch of Science; if we find, that the Generality of Readers, acquire their Historical Knowledge, by such unconnected Parcels, as they are seldom able, clearly to put together. And of this, the following Articles, may serve for an Example, as they contain the Substance, of the ancient Greek and Roman History, before the Birth of Christ; and every one may judge for himself, whether he has not perused many of them, in the common Method of reading, without any proper Attention, to their Chronological Order. Such as,

THE BEGINNINGS OF ANCIENT ROME, AND ITS REGAL GOVERNMENT,
 THE HISTORY OF THE ELDER CYRUS,
 THE EXPULSION OF THE ROMAN KINGS, AND THE FIRST ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CONSULAR GOVERNMENT,
 THE PERSIAN INVASION OF GREECE, UNDER DARIUS, AND UNDER XERXES,
 THE PELOPONNESIAN WAR,
 THE EXPEDITION OF THE YOUNGER CYRUS, AND THE RETREAT OF THE TEN THOUSAND GREEKS,
 THE EXPEDITION OF AGESILAUS,
 THE VICTORIES OF EPAMINONDAS,
 THE BATTLES OF PHILIP OF MACEDON,
 THE CONQUESTS OF ALEXANDER,
 THE QUARRELS OF HIS SUCCESSORS,
 THE RISE OF THE ACHÆAN LEAGUE,
 THE TWO PUNICK WARS,
 THE CONQUEST OF LACEDEMON, BY THE MACEDONIANS AND ACHÆANS,
 THE CONQUEST OF MACEDON, BY THE ROMANS,
 THE DESTRUCTION OF CARTHAGE,
 THE DESTRUCTION OF CORINTH,
 THE NUMANTIAN WAR,
 THE JUGURTHINE WAR,

 THE WAR, BETWIXT ANTONY AND AUGUSTUS.

Now

P R E F A C E.

Now all of these, tho' they are curious in the Detail, and PLUTARCH has given us most of them with great Beauty of Description, in the Lives of his different Heroes; yet they always appear, as if they were cover'd with a Cloud of Darknes, and make but an imperfect Impression on the Memory, till the Lamp of Historical Chronology has enlighten'd them. For it is that, which fixes them, in their proper Order of Succession; which fills up their different Intervals, according to the Series of Time; which gives the precise Month and Day of each Transaction; which accompanies them with other cotemporary Circumstances; and which connects them altogether, with the Periods and establish'd Æras of Chronology.

This Order and Connection will appear still the more necessary, if we consider the Absurdities of some Authors of Reputation, in Matters of this Sort.

Servius, upon Virgil's III<sup>d</sup> Eclogue, v. 40 and 41.

In medio duo signa, Conon: & quis fuit alter, Descriptis radio totum qui gentibus orbem?

has this remarkable Note, Conon, Dux fuit, cujus nomen dicit, quia in omnium ore versatur, nam philosophi tacet. And a little after, significat autem, aut Aratum, aut Ptolemæum, aut Eudoxum.

Now the Conon, whom Virgil mentions, was not Conon the Athenian General, but Conon of Alexandria the Astronomer; who had given the Name of Coma Berenices, to one of the Constellations, and was an intimate Friend of Archimedes, who is generally thought to be the other Astronomer, whom Virgil had in his Eye; but when Servius suppos'd it might be Ptolemy, he gave us a strange Contradiction in point of Time, for it may be shown that Ptolemy the Mathematician, according to his own Observations, did not flourish till above 130 Years after Christ; and we know, that Virgil died, 19 Years before the Christian Æra; so that Ptolemy did not really make a Figure, till about 150 Years after the Death of Virgil.

Accursius, the famous Author of the Glosses on the Civil Law, who flourish'd in the Beginning of the XIIIth Century, has observ'd in his Gloss, in legem 5 D. de fer. "that our Saviour, was not yet born, in the Days of Ulpian the Lawyer;" tho' we know, that Ulpian, was Prime Minister to Alexander Severus, the Roman Emperor, and that he died in the Year 226 after Christ. And others, in their Notes ad novellam XLVIII. c. 1. had concluded, "that the Emperor Justinian liv'd before the Birth of Christ; because no Mention is made of the Christian Æra, either in the Codex, or the Digest of the Law, publish'd by that Emperor;" tho' the Publication of the Codex is chronologically fix'd, to have been on April 16th, 529 Years after the Birth of Christ.

After these few Examples, and indeed there are many such, there will be little Reason, to insist any farther, upon the Usefulness of this Science, in Matters of Learning. And therefore it may be sufficient, to recommend the famous Inscription, on the Portal of the Academies of Pythagoras and Plato, to be consider'd and imitated, for it has a very universal Application.

ΜΗΔΕΙΣ ΑΓΕΩΜΕΤΡΗΤΟΣ ΕΙΣΙΤΩ

IF THOU ART IGNORANT OF GEOMETRY, PRESUME NOT TO ENTER HERE.

And the Propriety of this Exclusion, is very well illustrated, by a Saying of Xenocrates, the Disciple of Plato, as it is related by Diogenes Laertius in his Life: "For when one, unacquainted with the first Principles, either of Harmony, of Geometry, or of Astronomy, had desired to frequent his School of Philosophy, he made him this Answer,

"YOU MUST DEPART FROM THIS, FOR YOU HAVE NOT YET GOT THE HANDLES OF PHILOSOPHY."

Πρὸς δὲ τὸν, μήτε μουσικὴν, μήτε γεωμετρίαν, μήτε αστρονομίαν μεμαθηκότα, βεβλόμενον δὲ παρ' αὐτὸν φοιτᾶν, Πορεύε, ἔφη, λαβὰς γὰρ ἐκ ἑχέως φιλοσοφίας<sup>b</sup>.

In like Manner therefore, on the Title Page of every Historian, there ought to be this Inscription in Capitals.

ΜΗΔΕΙΣ ΑΧΡΟΝΟΛΟΓΟΣ ΕΙΣΙΤΩ,
ΛΑΒΑΣ ΓΑΡ ΟΥΚ ΕΧΕΙΣ ΙΣΤΟΡΙΑΣ

"ENTER NOT HERE, IF THOU ART IGNORANT OF CHRONOLOGY, FOR THOU HAST NOT YET GOT THE HANDLES OF HISTORY."

Where, and about what Time, Chronology first rose to be a regular Science, may be easily pointed out.

Polybius<sup>c</sup> is of Opinion that Ephorus of Cumæ the Historian, was the first who attempted it, under the Form of an Universal History; and we know, that he flourish'd, in the Days of Philip of Macedon, about 350 Years before Christ; but nothing satisfactory upon this Subject, seems to have appear'd, till after the Days of his Son Alexander; and so late indeed, as towards the close of the Reign of Ptolemy Philadelphus, about the Middle of the III<sup>d</sup> Century before Christ: And the true Reason of it, seems to be this, That before the Conquests of Alexander, the Greeks had very scanty Materials for such a Work; as their Knowledge was confined, to the Transactions of a narrow Tract of Country, and to the Annals of a short Period of Time. For their Travellers, could not easily import the Historical Memoirs of the Countries thro' which they pass'd; because such a Work would have required many Advantages, of which they were seldom Masters. Such as, a thorough Knowledge of the Language of the Country, a free Access to all their principal Records, and a Perseverance in such Application for a Series of Years. Now, general Wars among their fatal Calamities, often produce certain accidental good Consequences, by the Opportunities they give to Numbers, of observing the Situation, Nature, and Improvements of other Nations; by which the Progress and Circulation, both of Learning and of other useful Arts, has been the more easily propagated into different Countries.

Strabo tells us, "that the Greeks received great Advantages even in their Knowledge of Geography, from the Conquests of Alexander; for by his Means they became more perfectly acquainted, with the larger Tracts of Asia, and all the Northern Parts of Europe, to the River Ister;" and he might have mentioned too the whole Extent of Egypt; so that, at one and the same time, they came to the full Possession of Babylon and Egypt, the two Great Fountains of Ancient Learning. "The Romans, says he, in like Manner, opened the same Light over the Western Parts of Europe, up to the River Elbe, which divided Germany into two Parts; and they went beyond the Ister ev'n to the Tyra; and as for the Countries round the Lake Mæotis, and the Sea-Coast to Colchis, they were undiscover'd, till the Days of Mithridates, surnamed Eupator, King of Pontus; and the Parthian Empire made Hyrcania, Bactria, and the Scythians that lived beyond them, to be better known."

We may therefore take it for granted, that no General History could be properly compos'd, till the Geography of these Countries was sufficiently known; in order to describe the Strength of each particular Kingdom, the Number of its Inhabitants, the Progress of its Armies, or the Provinces that might be lost or acquired, in its Quarrels with other Kingdoms. But whenever the Access to all these Countries was laid open, by the Conquest of Alexander; when so many new Kingdoms were established, under the Macedonian Government, into which the Citizens of all the Greek States were freely admitted; when it extended the Greek Tongue, as an Universal Language, over Asia and Egypt; it gave the most favourable Opportunity, to several eminent Men, to write the Histories of different Nations. BEROSUS compiled the History of Chaldæa, from the Records of Babylon; and MANETHO that of Egypt, from the Records of Memphis, and of Thebes; and THE ARUNDELIAN MARBLES gave a compleat Series, of the Annals of Greece, from their earliest Times; all of which, were compos'd in that Age, by cotemporary Writers. And when we add to this, that the great Library of Alexandria was first form'd under Ptolemy Philadelphus, into which the Writings of all Nations were collected; we may safely conclude from so many united Particulars, that it was then, and not before, that Universal Chronology became a Science.

And the more narrowly we consider the Situation of the World at this Time, we shall be the more fully convinced of this Opinion. For till there was a Collection of proper Materials, brought together, such as the Manuscripts of all Nations must contain, it was impossible to separate the Truth of History from the Rubbish of Fable; because Facts are only to be canvass'd, from a Multitude of Circumstances, which combine together, to give Light to each other, while the Cotemporary History of one Country, corresponds to the Cotemporary State of another.

And as a Library was necessary to furnish the Materials for this Purpose, so we find, that the first great Father of Chronology, was ERATOSTHENES, the Librarian of Alexandria, who had the Command of all that Treasure of Learning. For the Possession of such a Multitude of Historical Memoirs, both prompted and enabled him to determine the Dates of many distant Facts. And we are informed by Dionysius of Halicarnassus*, that in the Execution of this Work, he had laid down to himself certain Chronological Canons, which that great Critick declares, he found to be accurate and uncorrupted, having examin'd them, in a Treatise wrote purposely upon that Subject, tho' to the great Misfortune of the Learned World, it is now lost.

But the particular Rise of Chronology, and its Progress in different Ages, as well as the Pillars on which it is built, will be more fully considered, in one of the Chronological Dissertations, which are preparing for the Press, as a Part of the present Work, and to which therefore we must beg Leave to refer.

The Tables which are now published, are not built upon any New System of Chronology; for this is a Science which of all others, admits the least of any Innovations; tho' it has not escaped the Fashionable Distemper of the Present Age, which multiplies New Theories and New Opinions, upon every Branch of Learning. And indeed this Spirit of Novelty, which is rather the Childhood and Sport of Imagination, than the Maturity of Judgement, has become a more Despotick Tyrant, over the Understandings of Men, than all the Prejudices of Education put together. For tho' we may have justly rejected many of the Errors, or the Follies of our Forefathers; yet these can never justify an Attack, upon the Good Sense, the Learning, the Religion, or the Experience of Past Ages; which have, and which always will outlive, both the Visions of Enthusiasm, and the Perplexities of Metaphysics.

The Ancient Chronology has been digested in the Tables, according to the Hebrew Text, and agreeable to the System of ARCHBISHOP USSHER; tho' it is proper to observe, that we don't assume the earlier Dates of Years, as if they could be demonstrated Mathematically. For as we only prefer them, from their being more generally received than any other, amidst a vast Uncertainty of no less than Three hundred different Opinions, about the exact Year of the Creation; we therefore chuse to decline any Controversy upon Points, where the Data are so few, and the Range of Hypothesis so unlimited; where Authors boast of Demonstrations, and yet give us nothing more, than the Play of a prolifick Imagination. And we may be the easier satisfied upon this Head, if we consider, that neither Religion, nor History, are fundamentally concerned, in precisely fixing the Times of such Remote Antiquity.

But when we descend, into the succeeding Ages of the World, we hope the Periods that have been adopted in the Tables, and their collateral Events, will be found in general to be built, upon the best Authorities, without being servilely copied, from the System of any one particular Author.

It is unnecessary to give a Detail of the Errors and Omissions of the other Tables of Chronology, by way of Apology for what are now publish'd. For the Complaint against them, is rather of a more general Nature, "That in them all, there is either a Want of Clearness and Method, in their Plan; or a Want of Materials, in their Execution; that they are seldom “ found applicable, to the different Books of History, either Ancient or Modern, which indeed ought, to be their principal Point of View ; and that they have rather wanted a Commentary themselves, than helped to illustrate other Authors.” And of this, there cannot be given a clearer Evidence, than the Practice of many Historians of Reputation ; who have found it necessary to add to their Writings certain Chronological Excerpts, under the Form of a Table, which, tho’ generally very imperfect, are yet a plain Proof of their Sentiments with regard to the Insufficiency of other Tables of Chronology.

For such is the Table subjoined by Dr. Prideaux, to his Connexion of the Old and New Testament ; such likewise is the Table, added by Mr. Stanley, to his Lives of the Philosophers ; and such also are the Chronological Tables which have been lately publish’d, by way of Supplement to the Universal History : All of which were only intended by their Authors, as partial Illustrations of these particular Works.

The Tables of Helvicus, which were publish’d in 1629, are what approach the nearest to the Plan of the present Work, and have been generally preferr’d by Men of Learning to all the rest ; because they give a more united View of the Collateral Succession of different Kingdoms. Whereas the more Modern Tables of Talent, Marshal, Fresnoy, and those compos’d by an Anonymous Author from Petavius, have all of them made one great and fundamental Mistake. For their chief Aim seems to have been pointed, to the contracting History into as little Room as they could, by which they have lost the true Connection and Union of its Parts, which can never be preserved, without expanding them, according to the Series of single Years ; and we therefore venture to affirm, that this Principle is the most essential, in the Texture of a Chronological Table. For it is in Chronology as in Musick, where the Harmony does not arise, from any single Note, or from any Number of Notes, but from their being properly proportioned and tuned to each other ; where, without the exact Disposition of Time and Place, the true Unison of Concert is broken, and the best Musick may become Discord.

The Improvements that are to be found in the Present Tables, and which are not contained in the Plan of Helvicus, may be reduced under different Heads.

And first, we have added to the Æras of Time, and to the Succession of Kings, the Principal Annals of Universal History. For these two first will be found to be Uninteresting and Dry, unless accompanied with the Great Stream of Remarkable Events. And the fixing of these Events to the Precision of Months and Days, wherever proper Authorities could enable us, will be found to be a very considerable Improvement upon the Original Plan. For it opens to many other collateral Circumstances, which serve to impress them much deeper on the Memory ; and it prevents that great Perplexity of confounding Time and Place, which therefore renders a Minuteness in these Articles, of a much greater Importance, than is generally observed.

The Column of Statesmen and Warriors, is a Thing hitherto unattempted, in any Tables of Chronology, and will be found to give considerable Light, to the Column of Remarkable Events ; because they are the great Actors in the Publick Transactions of the World, and are therefore so dispos’d in the Tables, as to be easily connected by the Eye, with those Battles and Revolutions in which they were principally concerned. Mons’ le President Henaut seems to have understood the great Use of this Column, as appears, from his excellent Chronological Abridgement, of the History of France, where, at the Beginning of every Reign, he has given us a List of such as were the most Eminent, in that particular Kingdom.

In the Column of Men of Learning and Genius, as well as in that of the Statesmen and Warriors, we have made one useful Improvement ; and that is, the adding to each Person, the Year of his Death and his Age. For by these we may determine the Distance and Coincidence of a Multitude of other Circumstances ; and the more intimately conversant we are, with any Branch of History or Learning, we shall be the more sensible of the Usefulness and Importance of this Addition.

We have likewise added many New Columns, even in the Succession of several Kingdoms, which will be discovered by a more particular Comparison of them with those of Helvicus, or of any other ; and at present we shall only refer to the Plate, N° 29. where we have given a clear View of all the New Monarchies which sprung from the Irruption of the Northern Nations. For this is a Part of History which is of all others the most complicated, and has been hitherto the least understood ; because the Rise of New Kingdoms, occasions that Peculiarity of Confusion in Historical Matters, which nothing but a Chronological Table can properly clear up. And this ought to be considered too, as a more Critical point of Time, because it is the True Source of all the considerable Monarchies now in Being ; and is therefore the proper Æra of Connection betwixt what is called the Ancient and Modern History.

The Engraving of the Tables, has likewise enabled us, to render the Whole more distinct and useful, than could have been done, by common Printing ; because the Fifty faint Hair Lines, which run across every Plate, contain each of them an united View, of the State of the World, for one Year ; and lead the Eye, by a plain and clear Direction, from any particular Event, to the Year of the Reign of the different Kings, of particular Kingdoms ; and so onwards, to the Year of the particular Æras, corresponding to that Event ; or by Reverse, from the Year of the Æra, and through the intermediate Columns, to the opposite Page, where the particular Event is register’d.

And this is indeed the true Reason, why the common Manner of Printing was thought to be less proper, and we have preferr’d that of Engraving, which from its Great Expence, made it necessary to publish by Subscription ; a Method which on many other Accounts, we should most willingly have declined.

There is also subjoined to the Tables, a Double Index, for the readier finding of the Remarkable Events ; the first, for such as happened before the Birth of Christ, and the second, for such as happen’d after the Birth of Christ. And this Index, we hope, will be found to be very Useful, for many Purposes ; as it generally assembles all the Articles of the same Nature together, and renders it much easier, to make Comparisons and Conclusions, from particulars scattered in the Tables, at a great Distance from each other. It is therefore with this View, that we have added to each Article, not only the N° of the Plate in which it is to be found, but the particular Year whether before or after Christ ; tho’ that of the Plate would have been otherwise sufficient, for the common Uses of an Index. And we would for this Reason recommend a frequent Perusal of the Index for the acquiring a more thorough Knowledge of the Tables, as it more effectually awakens our Curiosity, to examine the Events in the particular Plates; and then it fixes them, in our Minds, by many strong and remarkable Connections, which is indeed the great Secret of a Local Memory.

For Example, under the Word BATTLE, we have collected all the different Battles, in their proper Order; and we have likewise added to most of them, the Names of the Victor, and of the Vanquished; which the Brevity essential to Chronological Tables would not allow us to mention, in its proper Place. In the same Manner, we have given, a List of all the different WARS, ranged according to the Series of Time; every Thing that regards Astronomy under ASTRONOMICAL OBSERVATIONS; every Thing that regards LAW, under that Title; and so on of many others.

And now we have little more to mention upon this Head, but only to show the first and simplest Method of Entering the Tables, and acquiring a Knowledge of Chronology, for the Use of such as are not accustomed to Works of this Sort.

Suppose we should be reading any Part of the Roman History, for Example, that of Cicero, and should desire to know the State of the World at that Time. We must therefore begin with consulting the Index of Remarkable Events, before the Birth of Christ; and there we shall find his Name, accompanied with the following Articles, Cicero, M. Tullius, born on the 3<sup>d</sup> of the Nones of Jan; 107 Years before Christ, and to be found in the 18th Plate.

——began to plead in the 26th Year of his Age; 81 Years before Christ, to be found in the 19th Plate.

——makes his Orations against Verres, when he was 36 Years old; 70 Years before Christ, and in the 19th Plate.

——detects the Cataline Conspiracy, in Octo; 63 Years before Christ, and in the 19th Plate.

——banished Rome, by Clodius, April 1st; and retires to Thessalonica; 58 Years before Christ, and in the 19th Plate.

——is recalled, after a Banishment of a Year and five Months, in Sept<sup>r</sup>; 57 Years before Christ, and in the 19th Plate.

——is put to Death by the II<sup>d</sup> Triumvirate, Dec<sup>r</sup> 7th Æt. 64. being 43 Years before Christ, and in the 20th Plate.

Let us therefore begin with the first Article, and examine the State of the World, at the Birth of Cicero, which is put down, as having happened 107 Years before Christ, and to be found in the 18th Plate. We must therefore turn over the Plates, till we come to N<sup>o</sup> 18. In the Title of which is inscribed, THE II<sup>d</sup> CENTURY BEFORE CHRIST, PART 2<sup>d</sup>, and under it, are the different Chronological Periods, JULIAN PERIOD—YEARS OF NABONASSAR—OLYMPIADS—YEARS OF ROME, and YEARS BEFORE CHRIST,

Next to these are the different Columns, of THE KINGS OF EGYPT—THE KINGS OF SYRIA—THE KINGS OF PERGAMUS—THE KINGS AND HIGH PRIESTS OF THE JEWS; MEN OF LEARNING OR GENIUS; REMARKABLE EVENTS; STATESMEN, WARRIORS, &c.

Now as that of the Years before Christ, is the Æra to which the Number 107 refers, we must go down that Column of Figures, beginning with 150, till we find 107, which lies in the last Division, and 7 Places above the Bottom of the Page; and having once got this Number, we must run our Eye across the Plate and along the Hair Line, to the Column of Remarkable Events, where we find this Article thus entered.

Cicero is born on the 3<sup>d</sup> of the Nones of January, which agreed with the Beginning of November according to the Julian Year.

But still the Year of Rome, and that of the other Æras, might be desired; to answer which, we must again carry back our Eye, to the Number 107 already found, being the Year before Christ, and on the same Line on the other side, we find these Numbers,

First 647, which is the Year of Rome, according to Varro;

Next 2, which shows it to have been, on the 2<sup>d</sup> Year, of the CLXVIIIth Olympiad, which is marked on the Line above;

Then 642, the corresponding Year of Nabonassar; and in the first Column of all, is 4607, the Year of the Julian Period, coinciding with these other Æras, and with the Year 107 before Christ.

We next come to enquire, about the State of the different Kingdoms, in that Year 107; first, in the Column of Egypt we find the Figure 10 marked on the Hair Line, which shows it to be the 10th Year of the Reign of Ptolemy Lathurus, King of Egypt, with his Mother Cleopatra, surnamed the Elder, whose Names, are marked a little higher, when they began to reign. In the Column of Kings of Syria, we find the Figure 17 marked, which shows it to be the 17th Year of Antiochus VIII surnamed Grypus; and in the same Column, on the other side, tho' still on the same Hair Line, is the Figure 6, as being the 6th Year of the Reign of Antiochus IX, surnamed Cyzicenus, King of Cœlesyria, which was Part of Syria, then erected into a separate Kingdom; in the Column of Kings of Pergamus, we find nothing marked, because by casting our Eye upwards, we may observe that Kingdom had been bequeathed to the Romans, in the Year 133 before Christ. But still along the Hair Line above mentioned, in the Column of High Priests, and Princes of the Jews, we find it was the 1st Year of Aristobulus, surnamed Philellen, who had just succeeded John Hyrcanus, and was himself succeeded, in the following Year, by Alexander Jannæus.

But we may enquire still farther, what was the Situation of the Roman Republick at that Time? And in order to understand this, what we have already mentioned must be recollected, That each single Line contains the Events of that single Year, to which it corresponds, along the Hair Line, by which we may easily discover, that the Romans were at that Time engaged in two Great Wars, one against Jugurtha, and another against the Teutones and Cimbri; for the Line immediately below, tells us, that Jugurtha was delivered up to Marius, by Bocchus, in the following Year 106, which therefore concluded the five Years of the Jugurthine War; and on the second Line below, which corresponds to the Year before Christ 105, Cæpio and Manilius were ignominiously defeated by the Teutones, on the Banks of the Rhone; where 80,000 Romans were killed; and by running our Eye upwards, along the Column of Remarkable Events, we may proceed to connect it in our Memory with a Multitude of other Particulars, such as,

That 12 Years before this, Marius, when Tribune, had imprisoned Metellus the Consul, for opposing a Law which he proposed about the Bridges of Rome.

That 14 Years before this, Caius Gracchus was killed, in attempting an Agrarian Law.

That 26 Years before this, Numantia was destroyed, by P. C. Scipio, surnamed Africanus II; being the same Year in which Pergamus was bequeathed to the Romans; and in which Tiberius Gracchus was killed, in attempting his Agrarian Law.

That 39 Years before this, Carthage and Corinth were both destroyed, the first by Scipio, and the second by Mummius.

P R E F A C E.

If we desire to know the State of Learning of that Age, we may find it, from the Column of Men of Learning and Genius, for such then were, Castor of Rhodes the Chronologer and Historian,

Menecrates, of Nyssa, the Grammarian,
 Lucilius, the first Roman Satirist, who died in 103, Æt. 46,
 Apollodorus, of Athens, the Chronologer and Grammarian,
 Marcus Antonius sen', the Roman Orator, who died in 87, Æt. 56,
 Lucius Crassus, the Roman Orator, who died in 91, Æt. 49,
 Athenion, the Peripatetick Philosopher, who died about 95,
 Artemidorus, of Ephesus, the Geographer.

All of whom were alive and eminent about the Birth of Cicero, tho' they are placed according to the Times in which they principally flourished, without being strictly confined to a particular Year; for the Period of their flourishing is easily determined from the Year of their Death, and their Age, which is generally added, when it can be found. And the same Rule is observed, in disposing the Column of Statesmen and Warriors, tho', in general, they are more directly connected with those Remarkable Events which they either occasioned or conducted. For we find there the following Names,

Caius Marius, the Roman General, who died in 86,
 L. Cæcilius Metellus, surnamed Dalmaticus,
 Ptolemy Appion, King of Cyrené,
 Alexander, King of Cyprus, and afterwards of Egypt, who died in 88,
 Jugurtha, King of Numidia, who died in 106,
 Bocchus, King of Mauritania,
 Metellus surnamed Numidicus who was banished Rome in 100,
 Q. Servilius Cæpio, the Roman General, who died about 95,
 Antigonus the Jewish Prince who died in 106,
 Athenion, the General of the Slaves in Sicily who died in 102.

Let us take another Part of the Life of Cicero, which is his Suppression of the Cataline Conspiracy, and observe its Connection with the other Parts of the Roman History. And here I cannot help observing a very common Mistake, among a Number of People, who conceive, that the Cataline Conspiracy was prior in Time to the Jugurthine War; because it is printed and placed before it, in Salust's Account of both these Transactions: which is a plain Proof, how much a Prejudice only acquired by Accident, may darken the clearest Period of History. For the Tables plainly show, that the Jugurthine War, began no less than 48 Years, before the Cataline Conspiracy.

We have already observed, that this Conspiracy was detected by Cicero in Octo', 63 Years before Christ, and to be found in the 19th Plate.

According then to the Method above mentioned, we find, that the Year 63 before Christ, was the 691st Year of Rome, the 2<sup>d</sup> Year of the CLXXIXth Olympiad, the 686th Year of Nabonassar, and 4651st of the Julian Period; and in the Column of Kings, that it was in the 3<sup>d</sup> Year of Ptolemy Dionysius, surnamed Auletes, King of Egypt; we observe in the next Column that the Kingdom of Syria, had been conquered, two Years before by Pompey, who reduced it to a Roman Province; and in the Column of Kings of the Jews, that it was the first Year of the Restoration of Hyrcanus II; for the Remarkable Events, mention, that Jerusalem was taken by Pompey (that very Year) who restored Hyrcanus. The Cataline Conspiracy appears then to have been in Agitation when Pompey was engaged in this War in Judæa; and when Mithridates killed himself, after being defeated by his Son Pharnaces; and we can discover from the Tables, that Cicero was then 43 Years old, Cæsar 37, and Pompey 39.

By looking back in the Tables, we observe, that it was 16 Years after Sylla had resigned his Dictatorship. In the Transaction itself, it is mentioned to have been detected by Cicero, in October, and defeated by Antony the Consul, in Dec': So that the whole Affair was discovered and suppressed, in about two Months. And when we descend, in the Column of Events, we find, that it was a little less than three Years, before the 1st Triumvirate of Cæsar, Pompey and Crassus, which began in the Autumn of the Year 60 before Christ. We find next that Cicero was banished in the Calends of April, of the Year 58, at the very Time that Cæsar began his Expedition against Gaul, for he attacked the Helvetii upon the 1st Day of April; and this Banishment of Cicero appears to have continued one Year and five Months; as he was recalled from his Retirement at Thessalonica, about the beginning of Sept' 57; so that his Return was about six Years after the Cataline Conspiracy. The Death of Crassus was near ten Years after it, being defeated and killed by the Parthians, at Sinnaca in Mesopotamia, on the 9th of June 53. Now the Space from this last Event, to the beginning of the Civil War, makes an Interval of about 3 Years and 4 Months, as it broke out on the 22<sup>d</sup> of October 50, according to the Julian Year, though the Romans, from the Mistake in their Calendar, reckoned it to be the Calends of January of the following Year. And from this Date of Octo' 22<sup>d</sup>, when the Senate ordered Cæsar to disband his Army, we find there was an Interval of two Months and four Days, to the Siege of Brundisium, which he began on Dec' 26th, Pompey failed from thence Jan' 3<sup>d</sup>, 49, and Cæsar entered it on the 4th, and came to Rome upon the 19th; besieged Marseilles in the Spring of that Year, defeated Pompey's Lieutenants in Spain in the Summer, returned to Rome in Sept', and crossed the Adriatic into Epirus on the 15th of Octo'; all of which happened in the Year 49 before Christ. The Battle of Pharsalia was fought upon the 20th of July following, according to their erroneous Calendar, tho' really about the 12th of the Julian May; being 48 Years before Christ, the 706th Year of Rome, according to Varro, the 1st Year of CLXXXIII<sup>d</sup> Olympiad, the 701st Year of Nabonassar, and the 4666 Year of the Julian Period; and with Regard to the collateral Reigns, it was on the 4th Year of Ptolemy Dionysius, King of Egypt, with his Sister Cleopatra, and the 16th of Hyrcanus II. King of the Jews.

And now let us conclude these Examples, with the particular Æras and State of the World, at the Birth of our Saviour.

<sup>1</sup> The Title of Grammarian, in those Days, was properly applied to Men eminent, both in Critical Learning, and the different Branches of the Belles Lettres.

P R E F A C E.

From the Index we are directed to the 20th Plate, where, upon the 5th Year before the Vulgar Æra, we have his Birth marked to have been on Dec<sup>r</sup> 25th, and by running our Eye across the Hair Line, we find it to be the 749th Year of Rome, according to Varro, the 4th Year of the CXCIII<sup>d</sup> Olympiad, the 744th Year of Nabonassar, and the Year 4709 of the Julian Period; it was likewise in the 27th Year of the Reign of Augustus the Roman Emperor, counting it from his Victory over Antony at Actium, Sept<sup>r</sup> 3<sup>d</sup>, 31; and it was also in the 33<sup>d</sup> Year of Herod King of the Jews, from which Year of his Reign, as we shall show in the Dissertations, we have been induced to fix the true Birth of Christ, as happening 4 Years before the Common Æra.

Then as to the Political State of the World, we find that Augustus was at this Time at Peace with all Nations, and continued so till the Armenian War, which began 3 Years after, under his Grandson Caius Cæsar. We may observe likewise that Augustus had then lost his two Great Ministers, as Marcus Vipsanius Agrippa died in Campania on the 19th of March, 12, which was above 7 Years and 9 Months before the true Birth of Christ, and Mæcenas died in the Month of August of the Year 8, which was only 3 Years, and four Months before that Birth; Tiberius had retired the preceding Year to Rhodes, from a Jealousy of the two Young Cæsars, who were the Grandsons of Augustus, being the Sons of Agrippa, by his Daughter Julia.

As to the State of Learning, we find that the famous Varro had been dead about 23 Years, Cornelius Nepos 20, Virgil 14 Years, 3 Months and 3 Days, as he died at Brundisium, or, as Servius has it, at Tarentum, Sept<sup>r</sup> 22<sup>d</sup>, 19 Years before the Vulgar Æra; Tibullus was dead likewise 14 Years, being on the same Year with Virgil, and Horace 3 Years and 28 Days, as he died on the 27th of Nov<sup>r</sup>, in the Year 8, before the Vulgar Æra, having survived his Patron Mæcenas about 3 Months.

But there were still remaining alive, many of the greatest Men of that Age; as

Strabo, the great Geographer, who lived till the 25th Year after the Vulgar Æra;

Asinius Pollio, the Orator, who died in the 4th Year,

Titus Livius the Historian, who died in the 17th Year,

Ovidius Naso, the Poet, who died in the same Year; As also,

Marcus Vitruvius Pollio, the Architect,

Nicholas Damascenus, the Peripatetick Philosopher,

Julius Hyginus, the Grammarian and Poet,

Verrius Flaccus, the famous Author of the Capitoline Marbles, and

Dionysius of Halicarnassus, the great Critic and Historian;

the precise Year of whose Deaths, we have not been able to determine.

These few Examples will perhaps be sufficient to instruct even the Ignorant in the Manner of consulting the Tables, and we hope that such as are more Learned, will excuse the Detail, which has been thought necessary for that Purpose.

The Tables which we now Publish are the Principal and the Original Work which we proposed to give, but in the Course of Engraving them, it was desired by many, that we should add something more, to illustrate the disputed Points, to explain the prevailing Systems of Chronology, and to establish the Authorities upon which some of the particular Æras depend; that the Learned might have an Opportunity of examining what one might properly call, the Scaffolding of the Building. And this is what gave Occasion to the CHRONOLOGICAL DISSERTATIONS, which are mentioned in the second Proposals; but as these, as well as the History of Learning, and the Catalogue of Historians, by reason of a great Increase of the Materials, must be given in a more complete and ample Manner than was first intended; We have therefore thought it necessary, to delay the Publication of them for some Time longer; And we hope the Subscribers will not take it amiss, that the second Payment is expected upon the Delivery of the Tables, because the Engraving of them being the Capital Expence, has (from the numerous Additions to the original Plan) amounted to a much greater Sum than was at first expected. However, upon the second Payment, the Subscribers will have another Receipt given them, by which we shall oblige ourselves to deliver the remaining Part of the Work, without any further Demand.

And here I cannot conclude, without acknowledging the Obligations I have received, from some of the most Eminent Men of Great Britain, for Rank, Abilities, and Learning; in Gratitude for that Attention, with which they have Honoured and Promoted the present Work, even from those Imperfect Specimens, which they had an Opportunity to see.

And more particularly, I must beg leave to declare, my Great Obligations to THE RIGHT HONOURABLE WILLIAM EARL OF BATH, who has conferred so many Marks of his Favour, that I hope, I shall be excused, when I take this Opportunity of professing, the Great Sense I have of that Countenance, with which his Lordship has honoured me, for so many Years.

I intended to have said nothing more by Way of Preface, but as the little Ornament which is given in the Title Page, has pleased some good Judges, they have desired a particular Account of the Design.

The Story then, is that of Herodotus reading his History at the Olympick Games, and is founded on a Passage of Lucian, in his Piece called Herodotus or Action, and at the Recital of which, Thucidides, then a Boy, is said to have cried with Tears of Admiration, as taken Notice of by Marcellinus in his Life of that Historian.

The Figure of Herodotus will be easily known, as being the Principal in the Piece, and having a Scroll in his left Hand, on which may be read, ΕΡΕΘΟΥ ΚΑΤΑΒΑΣΙΣ, THE EXPEDITION OF XERXES. For as this was the most violent and dangerous Attack upon the general Liberty of Greece, and occasioned the burning of all their Temples by the Persians, which were ever afterwards left in Ruins, as a publick Monument of their Barbarity; It was therefore attended with all the Circumstances which could awaken their Enthusiasm and their Horror. And we are directed to fix upon this Subject the rather, because Lucian mentions it, as the Part of the History which had affected them the most. “ For when the Time, says he, of the GREAT OLYMPICK GAMES drew near, Herodotus found this to be the very Opportunity he so much desired, as it assembled together all the most eminent Men of Greece: he entered therefore the ΟΠΙΣΘΟΔΟΜΟΣ, and presented himself, not as a Spectator, but as one ready to contend in the Games; and when he recited his History, he so enchanted every one present, that they distinguished his different Books, by Way of Title, with the Names of the Muses, as being also nine in Number. And he became at once more universally known than the Olympick Conquerors themselves; for there was none but had heard of the Name of Herodotus; either such as were present themselves at Olympia, or had enquired of such as had been there. And wherever he “ appeared, they pointed him out, saying, “ THIS IS THAT HERODOTUS WHO DESCRIBED THE PERSIAN BATTLES, IN THE IONIAN DIALECT, AND WHO SO NOBLY CELEBRATED OUR VICTORIES.”

His Discourse is properly addressed to the Olympick Judges, who are raised above the rest upon a particular Seat or Bench, with a semicircular Table before them, on which there lye, as THE PROPER INSIGNIA, the Palm Branch and the three Olive Crowns. We have placed only six Judges on the Bench, tho’ it appears, from Pausanias<sup>1</sup>, that there were ten Judges in the Days of HERODOTUS; because it would have crowded that Part of the Piece too much, if we had taken them all in: So that we may suppose, four of them might be absent by Reason of Sickness or other Business.

Upon the Front of the Bench, we have put a plain Inscription, similar to many mentioned by PAUSANIAS, signifying that it was, THE SEAT OF THE OLYMPICK JUDGES, ΕΛΛΑΝΟΔΙΚΩΝ ΟΛΥΜΠΙΚΩΝ ΕΔΡΑ, and we have placed this εδρα or Seat, near the Goal of the Stadium, agreeable to a Passage in Pausanias, p. 180, Ως εφεσηκοιεν τρεις, ἐπὶ τῷ δρόμῳ τῷ περὶ τῆς Ἑλλανοδικίας.

The Stadium, or circular Range of Trees, round which the Races were made, appear in the Picture immediately behind HERODOTUS and the Crowd*.

The Boy standing just under the right Arm of Herodotus, is intended for the Figure of Thucidides, who is supposed to be about fourteen Years of Age; there is a Tear just trickling down his left Cheek, which, joined to that Attention with which he gazed upon Herodotus, shews that he cried rather from Admiration than from Grief; as if the first Sparks of his Emulation, as an Historian, were kindled from what he then heard. For Marcellinus mentions, that Herodotus took particular Notice of his Behaviour, and made the following Observation to his Father, “ Thy Son, O, Olorus! has a strong Impulse in his Nature “ to Science:” Which is rather more expressive in the Original, Ω Ολορε, ὄργῃ ἢ φύσιν τῇ σὺν ζῇ πρὸς μαθηματικά<sup>1</sup>.

The round Sphere or Globe, which is raised upon the Dorick Pillar in the Middle of the Picture, represents the famous Olympick Disk, which has the Word ΕΚΕΧΕΙΡΙΑ inscribed upon it; for Pausanias tells us, lib. v. p. 168, that the Eleans used this Disk for proclaiming and publishing PEACE to all Greece, during the Celebration of the Olympick Games; “ which ἐκεχειρία, says “ he, was not wrote upon the Disk in streight Lines, but round it, in a Circular Manner. This Inscription upon the Disk, consisted, probably, of the two Responses of the Oracle at Delphi, which Syncellus has preserved to us in his Chronographia, p. 196, Ed. Goar. Paris 1652, and is copied from him by Scaliger, in his Excerpts of Eusebius’s Chronicon, p. 37, and which we shall give below for the Amusement of the Learned<sup>m</sup>. Upon the lower Part of the Disk, the Names of Iphitus and Lycurgus were inscribed, which is mentioned by Plutarch in the Beginning of his Life of Lycurgus, as a Quotation from Aristotle; and it is confirmed, likewise, by what Pausanias says of their being cotemporary, lib. V. p. 150, which Syncellus particularly takes Notice of, in his Quotation from Aristodemus, p. 196.

The Back Ground of the Picture, behind the Judges, represents what Pausanias calls, The Treasury of Altis, which was a large Tract of Olympia, containing some of the most Magnificent Antiquities of Greece, for it was crowded with Altars and Temples to all the Heathen Deities, which had been erected there by different States and Cities at different Times, as Memorials of Battles and of Conquests, of which, the most memorable was that dedicated to the Olympian Jupiter, by the Eleans, out of the Spoils of Pisa, when they destroyed that City; in which Temple was enthroned the Statue of Jupiter, the Master-piece of Phidias, and made of solid Gold and Ivory. This Treasury contained likewise many Obelisks, which were the Monuments of Peace betwixt different Nations, the Treaties being inscribed upon them at full Length; such as the thirty Years Truce between the Athenians and Lacedemonians, which was wrote upon a Column of Brass; and there stood also, scattered about, a great Number of Statues of their Gods, Heroes, and Olympick Victors. But we shall insist no farther upon these Particulars at present, and therefore we beg leave to close this Account, by referring the more Curious Reader, to the fifth and sixth Books of Pausanias, where he will find Materials for much Speculation, in what regards either the Antiquity or the Magnificence of the fine Arts.

The Olympick Judges were increased at different Times, and their Number was often varied, according to Pausanias, lib. v. p. 156. Wechel. Francof. 1583, who gives the following Account of them.

Iphitus presided alone at his first Celebration of the Olympick Games, and this Honour was continued to the Posterity of Oxylus, who all presided singly till the 1st Olympiad; but, on this Olympiad two Judges were chosen by Lot, from the City of Elis, which Number were thus continued for many Years, till, in the twenty-fifth Olympiad after this, which answers to the LXXVth Olympiad, when the Number of the ΕΛΛΑΝΟΔΙΚΑΙ, or Olympick Judges was increased to nine, three of which were appointed for the Horse Races, three for the Pentathlon, or five united Games, and the rest for the remaining Games; and, in the LXXVIIth Olympiad, a tenth Judge was added. In the CIII<sup>d</sup> Olympiad, the Eleans, having modelled their Government according to XII Tribes, or Divisions, each Tribe sent a particular Judge to the Olympick Games; but their War with the Arcadians following soon after, they lost great Part of their Territory, and their Tribes were contracted to eight; therefore only eight Olympick Judges were chose for the CIVth Olympiad; but in the CVIIIth Olympiad, their Number was again encreased to ten, and continued so till the Days of Pausanias.

From this Account, it appears, that there were ten Judges in the Days of Herodotus, as he flourished about the LXXXIII<sup>d</sup> Olympiad.

* The naked Situation of the Plains of Olympia, before the Planting of the Stadium by Hercules, and the Manner how he first discovered the beautiful Olive Trees, with which he inclosed it, is excellently described by Pindar, in his third Olympick Ode, to which Mr. West has done great Justice in his Translation. See, likewise, Pausanias, lib. v. p. 154.
